Miss National Orange Show Featured on BNA Magazine Cover

San Bernardino, Calif., April 9, 2010- Newly crowned Miss National Orange Show, a native of Azusa, California, was featured in the April issue of Buenas Nuevas America, a community magazine serving the San Gabriel Valley.

As Crystal juggles her new position as Queen as well as a major in broadcast journalism and a minor in music, the article noted that Crystal has found the perfect balance between living a normal college life and accomplishing her dreams. She hopes to one day become a successful Television New Anchor. “I try to live my life by inspirational words of Walt Disney himself: ‘If you can dream it you can do it’,” Crystal said, “and I encourage everyone to follow their dreams no matter how challenging it might seem.”

About the National Orange Show Events Center

The National Orange Show Events Center is the Inland Empire’s premier source of entertainment and all-inclusive event solutions. The center’s multi-use, 120 acre facility offers 150,000 square feet of indoor space and has hosted concerts, banquets, and prestigious events such as the Wine and Food Under the Stars, The Pacific Rim International Wine Competition, and The Assistance League of San Bernardino’s Headdress Ball.
